> "The holding of the Sillag or La Union's Festival of Lights in Poro Point will play a major role in not only drawing tourists but promoting the Poro Point Freeport Zone with its seaport and airport as the country's magnet for investments and wealth generator in the North."

Poro Point launches...

point for a much bigger objective to promote the [illegible] of La Union.

"Through Sillag, PPMC aims to attract domestic and foreign tourists to encourage business and investment at the Poro Point Freeport Zone, at San Fernando City and the rest of the province," [illegible] said.

[illegible], PPMC president and chief executive, said, "The festival will surely recall Poro Point's distinction among tourist destinations in the country. With this, we hope to give light and inspiration to our [illegible] during difficult times."

The Poro Point Lighthouse, a distinct historical landmark in La Union, will be the focal point of the festival. The Poro Point Lighthouse serves as a beacon for ships and boats plying the sea at night. Similarly, the Poro Point Freeport Zone is envisioned as the Beacon of the North by catalyzing the socio-economic development in Northern Luzon. The lighthouse is considered in the [illegible] of the Poro Point Freeport Zone.

Sillag will open with an air show featuring ultralight aircraft and paragliding exhibitions. A children's show featuring clowns, magicians, jugglers and face painters will also be brought to light to create a festive atmosphere. Simultaneous with the children's show is the signing of the Memorandum of Agreement at the Lighthouse area. The MOA covers the Adopt a Lighthouse Project between Poro Point Management Corporation and the Philippine Coast Guard.

The Philippine Marine Corps Drum and Bugle Team and Silent Drill Platoon will perform after the lighthouse ceremonies.

The festival will be highlighted by a Lantern Floral Parade or parade of illuminated and decorated floats from various participating agencies/companies. The parade of floats, [illegible] the lighthouse.

"It will be a ceremony worth watching, a symbolism of the Poro Point's guiding light as it helps illuminate the northern region as the next tourism and investment destination in Asia," [illegible] said.

Hope lanterns will be released after the parade. The lanterns symbolize PPMC's collective hope for the socio-economic development of the Region. These will be sold to government agencies, businessmen, private corporate groups and organizations as well as individuals. Proceeds will go to the beneficiaries of PPMC's corporate social responsibility program, [illegible], which include [illegible] communities of the Poro Point Freeport Zone and Local Barangays.

After releasing the Hope Lanterns, a concert featuring the 6 Cycle Mind will be presented.

A pyromusical show will cap the night-long celebration.
